The cabins

The cabins are all outside cabins with individual air-conditioning controls, shower and WC, Satellite TV, radio, hair dryer, roomy cupboards, safe and telephone. The twin cabins on the Main and Middle Deck all have two lower beds, which are used as a sofa during the day, and non-opening windows. Twin cabins on the Upper Deck have a double bed, which can be split into two if required, and full-length, opening panoramic windows (French balcony). The suites offer 21 square metres of space and have, in addition, a minibar, coffee machine and DVD player.

Facilities on board

Panorama Restaurant, Panorama Bar Lounge, library, lift between the Middle and upper Deck, stair lift from the Upper Deck to the Sun Deck, Wellness Centre with exercise machines, sheltered Sun Deck, awning, deck chairs, chairs and tables.

First Aid

A doctor is within easy reach ashore.

Restaurant / Cuisine

Meals are served at a single sitting in the spacious Panorama Restaurant. We have a highly professional and friendly service team. The menus contain international cuisine as well as traditional dishes from the Danube countries.

On-board Programme

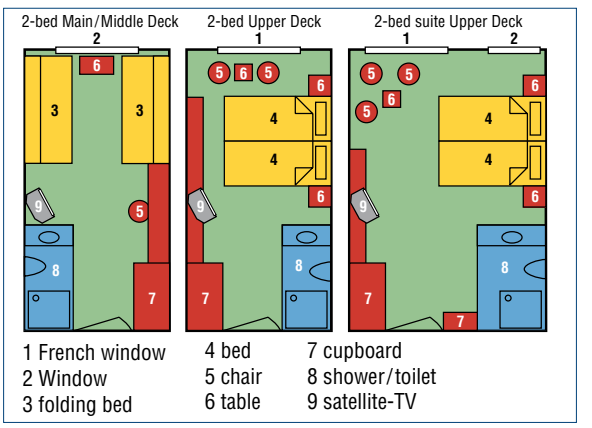

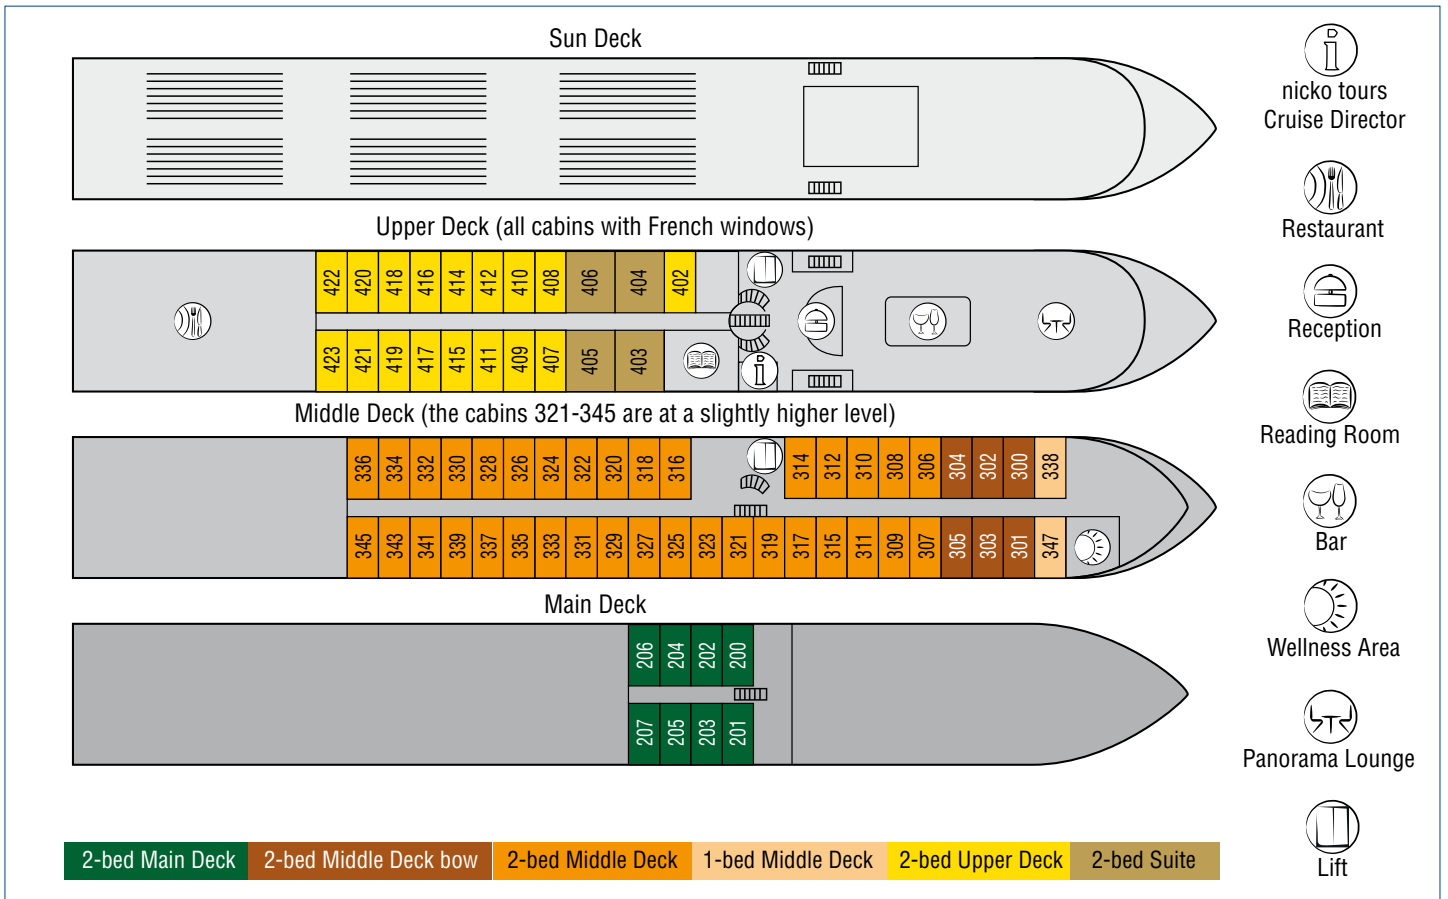

Theme evenings, quizzes, bingo and live music ensure that no-one is bored. Books, board games and packs of cards are also available.

Payment on board.

The on-board currency is the euro. At the end of the cruise you can settle your on-board account either in cash or with a credit card (Mastercard / VISA). All excursions booked on board must be paid for in Euro in cash.

Life on board.

The atmosphere on board is informal. We recommend comfortable clothing, a jumper for cooler evenings and stout footwear for the excursions ashore. We ask that you dress a little more smartly for Dinner. Our Cruise Team is at your disposal during the whole cruise with help and advice. This is a non-smoking vessel, where smoking is permitted only on the Sun Deck.
